

KohaLa : french koha non profit group

Support Users / Promote Koha / Make Koha evolve

How did it happen ?

- Created in 2007
- First adopter and first provider
- Help users and developpers to work together
- Promote Koha
- Give a legal existence

Nowadays

- 70 members (56 institutions / 14 individuals)
- Steering comitee : 7 people
- Roles for each actions
- Funded by membership

Mailing-list

- French speaking
- Several countries (Canada, Belgium, Africa)
- 550 subscriptions
- Archives since september 2017

Website

- New website in 2017 (3rd since 2011)
- Well indexed in french search engine
- Presentation of koha and kohaLa
- Announcement
- How to get involved

Symposium

- Each year since 2010
- For newbies or current users
- Presentations or workshops
- Networking place

Sonia BOUIS – Université Lyon 3 –
Alingsås - Swedish Koha User
Group Conference - 22 mars 2018

Study day

- Second event of the year
- November koha release
- Presentations or workshops
- ERMS presentations

training

skills

- Only for members
- Technical training
- Fonctionnal training
- Usually 2 sessions (Paris / Lyon)

Technical group : translation

- Using Pootle
- OPAC /Staff interfaces
- Documentation

Technical group : bibliographic

- Preparing RDA
- IFLA updates
- Unimarc framework
- Bugzilla patches

Marseille Hackfest

- Co-organising with Biblibre
- Welcoming french users
- Funding journey for foreigner developpers

Sonia BOUIS – Université Lyon 3 -
Alingsås - Swedish Koha User Group
Conference - 22 mars 2018

Promotion / representation

- Leaflet / kakemono
- Librarian Congresses
- Open source promotion

Sonia BOUIS – Université Lyon 3 -
Alingsås - Swedish Koha User Group
Conference - 22 mars 2018

Looking to the future

- Sharing funds for new developments
- Try to add more help on website (jquery/kohadevbox)
- Keep people motivated